BATED BREATH CACIQUE CHAMPS ELYSEES DANSILI FRANKEL KINGMAN OASIS DREAM

excited to have a yearling in Book 1 and we also have another three in Book 2 and one in Book 3.

"We went together with Peter and Ross Doyle last year, short listed and this was the one that we collectively liked the best. She is very correct and good looking and has all the things that the Doyle's normally pick. We are very grateful to them for their help and really pleased with her, she is a typical Acclamation stamp.

"She has been very popular and has had an awful lot of viewings."

ELSER MAKES RETURN TO TATTERSALLS

Camden-based American Kip Elser of Kirkwood Stables, who was a familiar face at the Craven Breeze-Up Sale, selling US imports a few years ago, made the trip across the Atlantic once again to see what Europe has to offer.

He commented: "The ones that fit are very hard to buy at home and there has always been good horses here. There is a possibility that I could take a filly home to run for a client or might re-sell."

KILMONEY DOES IT AGAIN

Kilmoney Cottage Stud made further pinhooking profits, following the success of their Poet's Voice colt mentioned in yesterday's issue, when their Motivator filly, Lot 211, was sold for 160,000gns to Anthony Stroud, who was acting on behalf of The Cool Silk Partnership.

The May-born filly, who was signed for by Peter and Ross Doyle at last year's December Sale for 38,000gns, enjoyed a recent catalogue update when Move In Time landed Sunday's Gr.1 Prix de l'Abbaye.

BEST OF AMERICAN AND EUROPEAN

Barbara Facchino's Barouche Stud brought over some of the best American blood in the form of an unraced full-sister to Tapit to mix with some of the best European blood, by covering her with Galileo. The resultant offspring, an April-born colt (Lot 212) realised 400,000gns yesterday when selling to American Shawn Dugan.

Facchino purchased Tapit's dam, Tap Your Heels, when the Gainesway sire was just a yearling for $900,000 at Keeneland in 2002 and the mare remains in the US. Stud Manager Rory Matthews confirmed that she has an Elusive Quality filly foal at foot, that her Medaglia D'Oro yearling filly was sold at Keeneland for $400,000 and that Kip Elser, who was well known for importing US-bred juveniles for the Craven Breeze-Up Sale, returns to Tattersalls following a few years' break.
